

TREASURES FROM THE CAREER SERVICES WEB SITE

CAREER EXPLORATION

<http://www.vpul.upenn.edu/careerservices/careerexploration/>

- Career Opportunities for Liberal Arts Students
<http://www.vpul.upenn.edu/careerservices/jobsandinternships/LiberalArts.php>
- First Jobs & Grad Schools By Major. Data collected from Career Services' annual survey of students graduating from the College. This link lists every first job taken/graduate school attended by CAS grads immediately after their graduation to give students of the versatility of any liberal arts major.
<http://www.vpul.upenn.edu/careerservices/undergrad/majors/index.php>
- What Can I do With This Major? Put together by the University of Tennessee, this helpful resource is great for students who really like their major and may want to do something connected to it, highlighting common careers related to that course of study and strategies/training required to get there.

CAREER AND SALARY SURVEYS

<http://www.vpul.upenn.edu/careerservices/reports.php>

Provides data for both internships and jobs including:

- Salary averages and ranges for specific types of jobs and industries
- Names of organizations that hire Penn students
- When and how students typically find opportunities

INTERNSHIPS & JOBS

<http://www.vpul.upenn.edu/careerservices/jobsandinternships/>

There are sub-pages for both internships and jobs separately but some key resources to remember are:

- PennLink (our job and internship board)
http://www.vpul.upenn.edu/careerservices/pennlink_jobseekers.php
- iNet (internship database of shared postings through an elite university consortium) http://www.vpul.upenn.edu/careerservices/inet_jobseekers.php
- Resources by Field. Resources broken down by topic, including industry-specific job boards, sample employers, career advice and lists of related professional associations

NETWORKING

<http://www.vpul.upenn.edu/careerservices/networking/>

Provides tips and advice on how to successfully network, including sample questions for informational interviews.

- QuakerNet (Penn's alumni database)
www.myquakernet.com
- Penn Alumni Group on Linked In (can be joined by current students and has over 30,000 members as well as sub-groups by industry)
<http://www.vpul.upenn.edu/careerservices/networking/linkedin.php>
- Penn Internship Network. A database of current students who are willing to be contacted by their peers with questions about their summer internship experience. Very useful for underclassmen, particularly freshman, who may be curious about what other students in their year or major do over the summer and who may be more intimidated by the prospect of contacting alumni.

CAREER SERVICES LIBRARY - Great print and on-line sources

<http://www.vpul.upenn.edu/careerservices/library/>

A particularly great feature of this site is the link to "Online Subscriptions." The subscriptions cover a variety of fields including Arts, Bioscience, the Environment, International Development, Journalism, Public Relations, Policy, and Technology. The subscriptions also include employer research tools including GoInGlobal, the H1-B Online Jobs Databases for Foreign Students and Glass Door, as well as the Vault and Wetfeet guides. (PennKey required) One particular favorite is the "Opportunities in Public Affairs," which lists public relations, Capitol Hill, and think-tank and policy jobs in DC. Another is "Internships-usa" which has on-line internship listings in:

- | | |
|-----------------------------|-------------------------|
| - Environment | - International Affairs |
| - Congressional Internships | - History |
| - Sports | - Law & Policy |
| - Media | - Women's Rights |
| - Human Rights | - Business |

OTHER GEMS/ALTERNATIVES TO OCR

- Common Good Careers Page. Variety of resources for exploring, identifying and applying for opportunities in public service, including a calendar of career-related events on the public sector.
<http://www.vpul.upenn.edu/careerservices/careerfields/commongoodcareersmain.php>
- International Opportunities Page. Advice and resources for searching for opportunities internationally.
<http://www.vpul.upenn.edu/careerservices/international/>
- Gap Year & Year of Service Programs Page. For students who are unsure of what they want to do next or are looking to take a gap year before going to graduate school should familiarize themselves with the resources on this page, including lists of post-graduate fellowship programs.
